Dedication to Dr. James Will

The dedication of the yearbook is one of the few things in a tenure of four years that a class does together — as one. Their intention is a gesture of acknowledgement and affection to one of the North Central Family who has been close to them as a class. And, as such, the act of dedication must honestly reflect a sentiment which is general and heartfelt. In this sense, it is certain that the students of the Class of 1958 have chosen a person to whom they can talk, one in whom they feel confident, and one who is a great friend to all. This is the person found in the dedicatee, Professor James Will.

Dr. C. Harve Geiger
President

His eleventh year as President of North Central College finds Dr. C. Harve Geiger ever more busy handling the problems of his North Central "family." "WELCOME" is his by-word for all who seek counsel.

To his academic background of a Bachelor of Arts degree from the University of Chicago in 1922, a Master of Arts degree from Harvard University in 1928, and a Doctor of Philosophy degree from Columbia University in 1940, he has added learning which only that capable teacher, Travel, gives us.

Wherever he goes, whether to address church, civic, or educational groups, you may be sure he is fostering greater respect for North Central College.

Instructors, Counsellors, and Friends

Even in our years of Change and Progress the torch of learning is our symbol of knowledge. The conflict which cast a gloom across civilization cannot extinguish the light of learning. So long as there are students with alert, eager minds and instructors with wisdom and experience, nothing can ever black out the torch of learning. We are grateful to our Instructors for sharing this torch with us and giving us a challenge to think. This is a light which burns on wherever we are.

Juniors

The Class of 1959

Junior year in college is, perhaps, the year that stands out most in the memories of college "grads." This is the year when the Junior class is expected to spend a great deal of time taking a part in planning many of the all-school activities.

1957-1958 is a year that will certainly stand out in the memories of the Class of '59. In this year, with the coming of dancing on campus, the class has done its best to make the school dances especially enjoyable. "Cari-ole", the Christmas dane, and "Spellbound", the Valentine dance, will long be remembered as tributes to the efforts of the class.

In addition to these dances the class has sponsored informal parties after all-school activities, the concessions at the football games, and is, now busy bringing the year to a well-remembered close by devoting the majority of their time to work on the Prom.

Our Class of '59 has accomplished much in the years we've been at NC. The class may have dwindled in size since our Frosh year, but we still have a unity and close bond between us. We will as college "grads" think back to our days at NC . . . and remember . . .

The "nifty class of '60" has really come a long way since it first crossed the threshold of Old Main two years ago.

It is a class that can boast of a wonderful President, Dallas Chapman, and the other officers and active members of the class, who participated in the "backbone" activities which make NCC tick.

"Honored" sophs include Betty Kirchdorfer, the new YWCA President, and Ruth Gaurke, the treasurer. Famed Paul Holmes, varsity basketball co-captain, Pat Hazel and Ann Shaw proved the beauty of the class as members of the Homecoming court. When speaking of sports, one cannot miss the lively sophomore cheerleaders, Judie Grant, Nancy Keating, Betty Kirchdorfer, and Gene Willy. They are on hand to cheer the athletic teams, made up of many sophomore fellas, such as Frank Shigut, Ron Gullstand, and Bob Gullborg.

Dramatics, publications and the many social activities are many other functions that keep the sophomores on the run. Margie Lewis, a member of the newly formed CAB helps keep the class on the ball. As a result of this, the class of '60 has gone out and put on a lively Sadie Hawkins Week-end. This party featured a costume party, and dance, complete with a King and Queen.

The hallowed halls shall ring with their memory for years to come, as they ring now, to the Class of '60.

Freshmen

The Class of 1961

As the sleepy little campus of NCC awakened last fall to the clatter of suit cases, it found a new group of students. We were the class of '61 — the Centennial Class of NCC.

After every freshmen was initiated by registration and Asian Flu, the real initiation started. "Double Button Frosh" were common words, and who will forget the "Peanut Roll" and the "Torch Light Parade." The class really showed its strength when our husky Freshmen boys pulled the Sophs through the "roar'n Dupage" during the "Tug of War."

The freshmen were quick to bring about a greater class unity by having a "Freshman Hayride" and a dance. As the winter social season hit a new low, the Freshman Class brought new spirit to NC's campus by throwing an all school "Canteen" in Kaufman after the basketball games.

This is the Freshman class, the class that couldn't be wiped out by Asian flu, the class that couldn't be drowned by the upper classman, the class that brought new spirit to NCC — the Centennial Class of '61.

Down around the fieldhouse one can always see these faces; Mr. Belding, Coach Burger, Miss Tanner, Coach Vail.

Athletics on North Central's Campus

"Go Cards Go" was always heard at the sports events at NC, but this year it could be heard louder than ever before. The Athletics have been the best they've been for quite some time. But there are many opportunities for NC'ers to participate in sports other than the varsity teams. The field house holds many hours of activities for those who are interested in basketball, swimming, tennis, baseball, and track. The coaches down around the fieldhouse are always on hand to help us out; Miss Tanner and Mrs. Thornton show their interests in the girls competitive sports, Mr. Vail, football, Mr. Burger, basketball and baseball, Mr. Belding, track, and Mr. Dexheimer, tennis. The fieldhouse is available to all — why not participate in some sport!

One of the important committees on campus is the Athletic Board. It consists of Diane Luedtke, Dr. Hower, Miss Tanner, Prof. Sundby, Mr. Belding, and Don Prouty. Prof. Cates and Rogene Bucholz are also members of the board.

Cheerleaders

These gals have really got the spirit, whatever the outcome — they grin and bear it. They are Gene Willy, Nancy Keating, Judy Clasen, Judy Grant, and Mary Ann Uebele.

Varsity Club

When we think of the V-C the fellas think of the initiation and the "Scabs" . . . while the girls think of the fabulous V-Club formal . . . Chez Vee . . . We all think of the Mid West meets . . . the all school sports nights . . . and many informal dances held in the V-C room.

But to the fellas who receive a letter and become a member of the club it means among other things . . . the benefits of the comfortable lounge . . . TV set . . . ping-pong tables . . . and kitchen . . . and finally the satisfaction of many friendships and the value of good sportsmanship. This year under the leadership of Tom Drake the club came up with many new ideas which were put into use. One being the procedures of initiation!

First row: Stump, Rank, Heinrich, Drake, Prouty, Shigut, Hamilton.

Senior Lettermen of North Central College

Although the athletic picture at NCC is on the up-grade, with the passing of the Class of '58, thirteen fine athletes will conclude their college sports participation. This group includes six swimmers who composed the nucleus of our N.A.I.A. Championship Team. A winning squad in themselves are Jim Rank, John Mizanin, Andy Kelly, Tom Eck, Bill Lavalie, and John Molitor.

In other sports around the campus one could find Dick Olsen playing center on the football team, Dale Shymkewich on the basketball and baseball teams, Don Prouty for his fine work with the baseball team, Paul Sutton, ace man on the tennis team, and the Erdman's, Jim and Jack out on the track, along with the Varsity Club President, Tom Drake.

Bill Lavalie, John Mizanin, Dale Shymkewich, Dick Olsen, Jim Rank, Tom Drake, Andy Kelly, and Don Prouty make up the Senior Lettermen.

Women's Recreation Association holds sports events for all!

The WRA holds sporting events for the female half of our campus all year round. In the fall we are welcomed with a soccer tournament, archery and ping pong. Later on we find ourselves getting involved in the volleyball tournaments, also a co-ed tournament is sponsored by the WRA. Basketball and badminton are offered the second semester as well as the Tennis and softball tournaments. These sports give the female half of the campus a chance to participate in their favorite sports, just like the men-folk.

Standing: Keating, Norris, Fink, Faulhaber, Willy, Zeman, Spranger, Fanthorpe, Hassink. Sitting: Kloehn, Luedtke, Miss Tanner, Cook, Uebele.

First row: Hein, Wickboldt, Truesdale, Karrow, Martin.

A typical meeting held in Kroehler House Lounge on a Wednesday night each month bring girls from both dorms. This looks like a meeting where the initiation could have been planned.

Frank Trossen runs to give help to a team mate . . . wonder if he made it?

Football team has good year . . . 1957

North Central's 1957 football squad backed terrific defensive play with sufficient offensive strength to post a praiseworthy 7-2 season record — the best Cardinal slate since 1947. In CCI Conference play the Cards won 5 and lost 2, good enough for third place.

Throughout the season the NC victory ticket was defense. Conference opponents were able to score only 35 points against the bruising Cardinal line backed by quick, hard-hitting defensive backs.

The respectable 6-9 loss to always-tough Wheaton was an example of the defensive success of the Cards, who several times turned back ferociously the stunned Crusaders deep in NC territory.

Though not as potent offensively as defensively, the Cards' offensive game improved as the season wore on and for the most part produced when a tally was needed.

NC footballers opened the 1957 campaign with a 6-0 decision over Indiana Central on the strength of a Jerry Sroufe-Jack Nothacker pass play. Larry Exline was the offensive spark in the Cards' 27-13 win at Rose Polytechnic Institute.

Lake Forest edged the Cards, 7-0, followed the next week by a 7-6 trimming of Illinois Wesleyan, thanks to Dick Lambrecht's extra point. Wheaton retained possession of the Little Brass Bell, bumping NC, 9-6.

The boys on the bench play as hard a game as the fellas on the field.

If this were basketball we'd call it a jump ball.

Fellas, don't chase the ref . . . he just calls them as he sees them!

The season's bright spot was a 6-0 Homecoming triumph over a burly Carrol crew. Dick Brink gradded a 28-yard Don Long pass for the TD.

In November the Cards rolled to decisive wins over Millikin, Elmhurst and Augustana by scores of 20-13, 32-0 and 26-0, respectively. John Turpin sparkled both offensively and defensively.

In post-season honors Lambrecht and Ex-line earned All-CCI berths at guard and half-back respectively, while center Dick Marabito made second team. The sensational punting of quarterback Long is a highlight not to be forgotten.

The 1957 football season goes down as one of the most successful in the school's history, and marks the year that the newly-subsidized athletic program began to pay off with victories.

Homecoming Queen, lovely Judy Speck . . . Long live the queen . . .

Under The Big Top Homecoming 1957

NAPERVILLE, ILL. Five perk 'n pretty co-eds comprised the Homecoming court at NCC this weekend. As pictured above, you can see exactly how hard it was to choose a queen! Senior, Judy Speck, was the honored one. Preceding the coronation ceremony we viewed a short skit, then watched the burning of the towering woodstack, and finally attended the dance in gayly decorative Nichols Hall.

NAPERVILLE, ILL. Saturday was quite the day for the NCC co-ed and alumni! For the first time in years, NC produced a victorious Homecoming game by defeating Carroll 6-0. We noticed the shedding of many green beanies after the touchdown. A smorgasborg and three-act play climaxed this exciting day and an impressive vesper service on Sunday closed the tents of the magnificent NCC weekend circus.

Queen Judy sitteth on her royal throne.

At the coronation . . . A queen is crowned.

Queen Judy's court made up of Ilsa Zillmer, Pat Hazel, Ann Shaw, Kay Crabtree.

NAPERVILLE, ILL. Traditional stunts and pranks may plague a college campus throughout the entire year, but never have we seen a stunt performed as the one performed at NCC last fall. "Under the Big Top" we spied countless activities throughout the weekend of October 18. What does all of this mean? The annual Homecoming weekend made its appearance, portrayed in circus fashion.

Included in this spectacular weekend of happenings were the annual side-shows of Tug-of-War, pushball contest, and volleyball games. The "Big Top" featured, of course, the coronation ceremony on Friday evening and the victorious football game on Saturday.

Detailed descriptions of these phenomenae are found elsewhere in this edition.

And suddenly the whole sky was on fire!

The Homecoming game against Carroll college proved to be exciting, adding another win to our record.

The Lovely Ladies from Kroehler South bring forth their artistic qualities on the most beautiful float.

Clay Whycurt and John Bradley aren't bashful when it comes to heaping their plates at the Smorgasbord.

The frosh-soph pushball contest proved to be much fun — including a broken arm!

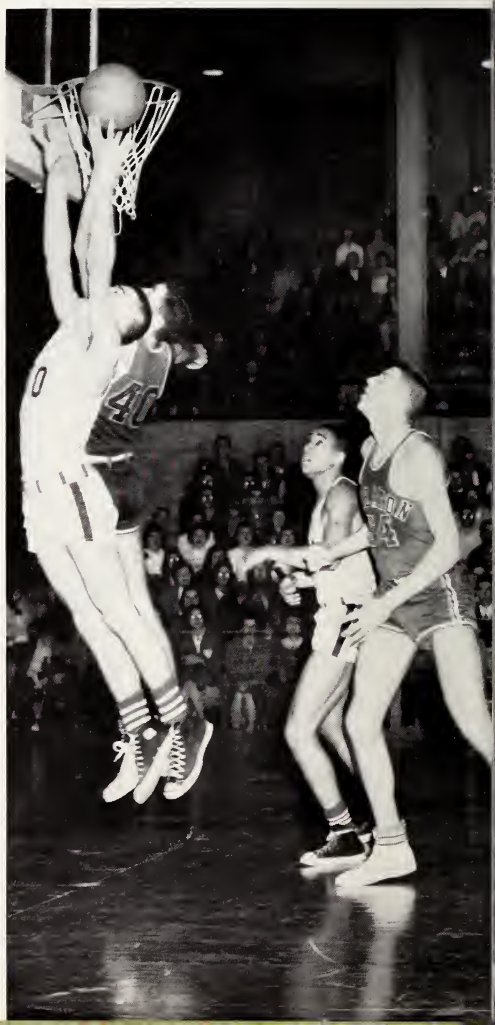

Not even the Wheaton Crusaders can cut in on Paul Holmes' shots.

It's Holmes again, out and under the basket — does he make the shot? . . . didn't you go to the game?

Gene Armentrout gives one of the Wheaton Crusaders a rough time!

Basketball Season 1957-1958

This year's basketball team turned in a very commendable record. Individually and as a team there were many outstanding games played. They won a total of 13 games, this being the second highest ever won by a North Central Basketball team, and with a total point score of 2090 they broke the existing school record.

With such mainstays as Harry Milner, who incidentally, scored 40th in free throwing percentage in the Nation, Paul Holmes, Dick Howard and Al Smithson, the team was able to have such a successful season. This was all done with the help of coach "Bud" Berger, and assistant coach Dale Shymkewich.

The team played host to many fine teams in our conference as well as to teams out of our conference down in Merner Fieldhouse. As the crowd cheered . . . the fellas played . . . the more scores made . . . the louder the cheering was . . . and in tradition, the team a fine game in the old NC fashion!

Of all the sports on our campus, the most spectacular record of the season was turned in by North Central's swimming team. With it's Captain, Jim Rank. Throughout the 1957-58 season the team was capable of consistently outscoring such schools as Loyola, Kansas State, Central Michigan, and Notre Dame, and breaking many records at these meets.

Space does not permit us to mention here in detail all the records that were set by this club. It will suffice to say that in National Competition, six new records were set by the North Central swimmers. These records, at the NAIA, were established with the help of Jim Hickman, Ernie Alix, Dick Lambrecht, John Molitor, Jim Rank, Dan Stump, and Harry Norris, and a few others. There is no doubt about it, these fellas have had a fabulous season.

Much of the credit can be given to Dr. Hal Henning, former Championship swimmer, North Central alumni, and member of the Olympic Swimming Commission, and to their coach Dean Giere.

great season in Merner Pool.

There are several senior members of the team who are leaving this June, but have been on the team for four years helping to build it to its success. This year's record being, 13 wins and 3 losses.

The Tennis Season at NCC . . . 1957

The women's tennis team had a very good season. They had a winning streak, winning all their matches by a score of 6-0, except one to Wheaton with a loss of 5-1. They played six matches.

The highlight of the season was the Milikin Tennis Tournament in which Diane Luedtke and Ruth Zeman placed a third, and Sheila Koeder and Donna Bohnstedt placed a fourth in the doubles.

These girls are coached by Miss Tanner, who invites all girls to come out for varsity tennis, if they are qualified.

The Men's tennis team played a 14 match schedule including schools such as Bradley, Dekalb, Concordia, and Illinois Normal as well as the usual competition within the conference. The season record was 3 and 11.

Members of the team were Jerry Husinga, Paul Sutton, Will Gobel, Clyde Cross, Jim Esterly, Jim Erdman, Bert Lee, and Gary Stowell. Coach Bob Dexheimer and his team put in an intensive and enthusiastic season. There are the men who never decline the challenge, "Tennis, anyone?"

Women's Tennis team consists of Dianne Luedtke, Coach, Miss Tanner, Sheila Koeder, Leni Spranger, Donna Bohnstedt, and Ruth Zeman.

Kroehler House

Kroehler House is one of the oldest and most beautiful of all the buildings on NC's campus. Located between Kroehler North and South the House is ideal for receptions, teas, serves as a guest house for overnight visitors, and a place for Kroehler North girls to call "home".

Mrs. Dute who lives in the House is the house director, persons wishing to stay in the guest house must clear it with her.

Seager Hall

With their beautiful lounge, complete with TV set and fire place, Seager hall finds itself playing host for many of the dances, social get-togethers, club meetings and dorm meetings, and at times a quiet place to study. The new policy of student government seems to be working quite successfully at Seager this year . . . in spite of the crazy pranks the fellas play, after all what would college be like if we couldn't get "wound-up?"

Kaufman Hall

This dorm houses all the frosh boys that don't live in the New Men's Dorm. No matter which dorm they live in they still do the same things — from shaving in the morning to room check at night. Their spacious lounge serves as a place for many of the activities on campus — dances . . . Canteens . . . or just friendly get-togethers.

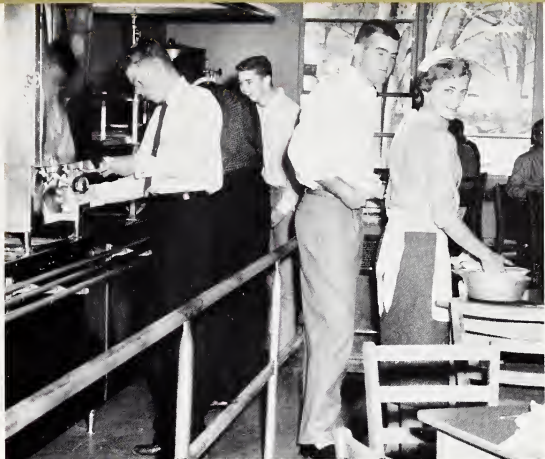

The Kaufman Hall dorm council is made up of Jim Miller and Bob Scary, it's small, but effective.

Miss Rose

One of the busiest places three times a day is the Kaufman dining hall.

New Men's Dorm

Residents of the new dormitory for men had the unique experience of seeing the structure completed around them. During the first two weeks of its use workers roamed the halls and rooms adding finishing touches.

But as the year wore on the annex to Kaufman Hall began to take on the appearances of an occupied building. It was literally being "broken in" by eighty-five freshman tenants.

By the year's end the modern rooms and corridors and the spacious beautifully-furnished lounge had been the scene of enough student life to acquire the intended nature of a college dormitory — that of a home.

The dorm council for the new dorm consists of Frank Trossen, Jerry Sroufe, Rog Bremmer, Dick St. John, Bud Kaatz, President, Denny Swisher, Bob Werle, Jim Rank.

The Student Council serving as a link between the students and administration has had an active term. It supervises all student activities, approves all club constitutions and appoints chairmen for Homecoming, College Day and Freshman Orientation. The council elects members to the College Activities Board, Finance Board, and to the Student Union Board of Control.

The President's gavel changed hands at the semester upon the resignation of Glenn Pfeifer Student Body President. Howard Mueller, formerly Men's Representative succeeded him in office. The faculty advisor is Professor Schap.

Honorary Societies at North Central College

There are many honorary societies on our campus. Each of them are related to one of the departments on campus and membership requirements differ with each one. These societies are all interested in the stimulation of further study in certain fields.

Alpha Psi Omega is composed of students active in dramatics. The requirements include participation in the Theatre Guild productions and a specific grade index.

Beta Beta Beta is the honorary society for outstanding students in Botany, Zoology and Biology. The qualifications call for a given number of hours in the field and a grade index of B.

The qualification for Pi Kappa Delta is the participation in at least five intercollegiate contests. This fraternity is the largest forensics honorary fraternity in the Nation.

Pi Gamma Mu is the honorary Social Science society. Its purpose is the promotion of further research and advanced study in the social sciences, fostering of an intelligent approach towards the solution of various social problems, and encouragement of consideration and understanding of those individuals with different opinions.

Pi Sigma Iota is one of the newest societies on campus. Its purposes are the recognition of outstanding ability and attainments in romance languages, the stimulation of advanced work, and the promotion of a sentiment of amity between the US and romance language nations.

Sigma Rho Gamma, the national music fraternity, has its interest in creating interest and further study in the field of music.

There are many other departmental clubs and organizations which are open to everyone and anyone interested. These clubs are usually composed of people going into the major field which the clubs support. These meetings are held monthly, with discussions of interesting topics concerned with the field.

"Come and get it," it's time to "chow down!" Perhaps these aren't the words Edna uses to call all hungry Southeasterners to eat, but they convey the main idea.

Southeastern draws members from all classes, sports, creeds and races, as it is the only eating club left on North Central Campus.

Every organization has its traditions and Southeastern is no exception. The "belt-line", which takes place on the manhole cover at Wright and Van Buren, is the official location for this event. In order to be fortunate enough to receive a beltline the following violations must take place: New members, new officers and out going officers, spilling food on the tablecloth, leaving gum at the table, walking on the lawn, frosh who do not eat spinach, and anything else the president can think of. This year's presidents were Larry Dutenhaver and Jim Rank.

But on the serious side Southeastern represents good companionship and plenty of good food!

The Commuter's Club is one of the newest and fastest growing organizations on campus. They're the folks that do all the traveling to and from the Hall of NC's Old Main. They come from near and far. This group includes the fellas who live in private homes also. It's been within the last couple of years that they have gained a place in the Student Council, and are now represented.

This year they're really to be given credit for the Greenwich Village Party, complete with pizza, candle light, checked table cloths, artist's walk, and music . . . and then Monte Carlo . . . both to be remembered for a long time!

The student publications on NC's campus include the SPECTRUM, the Chronicle, the Cardinal. The position of editor for any of these publications is open to anyone in the school. He must put in a petition to the publications board who take experience, and grades into consideration before making a choice. Every student on campus should participate on the staff of one of the publications for they are a part of the college that you will always take with you.

Campus Yearbook . . . The Spectrum

"Memories are made of This" was an all time favorite, but as far as Ye Olde Spectrum is concerned, "This is Made of Memories" is a much more suitable song title!

Ilsa Zillmer, assisted by Marcia Bornemeier, edited the 1957-58 SPECTRUM aided by Mrs. Ella Dute, advisor; Carol Esterly, copy editor; Lucille Sprecher, commerce editor; Erwin Thormahlen, Mike Kontos, Bob McGuire, and Bob Clemin, photographers; and Gale Lehnus holding the reigns as business manager!

The SPECTRUM is edited once a year and the layout of plans is made during the summer. However, the lights burn low and long in the stamping grounds of the SPECTRUM almost every night of the week until completion of the book arrives. Only editors and workers can verify the process of producing a yearbook so here's hoping this year's book provides you with enjoyment, memories, and happiness.

Mrs. Dute, Faculty advisor, and the Editor go over many important contracts and papers before the book can get underway.

The Weekly Story . . the College Chronical

The fast monotonous rhythm of a typewriter or the scratching of a pencil come diligently into full swing every Wednesday evening to meet that "zero hour" deadline.

The stories are "born" by a greatly increased Chronicle staff under the leadership of Dan Driggett, the editor, and results can be shown by the many six page issues and additional feature columns which have appeared this year. Dan is assisted by George Picha, associate editor, Gene Bucholz, comptroller, and Curt Hohnson and Jack Erdman, ad managers.

The Chronicle strives to bring forth the latest issues on campus and places them before the students. Stories and columns such as "Our World Today" by Bob Anderson, Keith Schap's "Noteworthy", "Campus Crews" by Maellen and Mike, and the "Scoreboard" by Dave Bates are watched for with anticipation each week for they cover all phases of campus life.

The voice of NCC, WNOC, broadcasts music, news, sports, and many other programs nightly between the hours of 4 to 12, midnight, throughout the school year. This small, but well equipped radio station occupies three studios and a control room on the fourth floor, south-west corner, of Old Main. The studios of this broadcasting station include a fine, up-to-date "LP" record library, from which you hear a varied selection each evening. WNOC is operated under the auspices of the NCC Speech Department, and thus the staff obtains much help from Prof. Shanower.

On the technical side, this station is a 15 watt, closed circuit system, operating on a frequency of 640 Kilocycles. This year the staff numbered twenty-six members. Much of the success of the station is due to the efforts of the 1957-1958 Program Director, Bud Kaatz, and the Chief Engineer, Bob Lange.

Terry Senty at the controls while Jim McKay and Bob Lange go over a script. They are part of the crew responsible for your evening enjoyment over the air.

Be Wise Join the Campus Y's

Here's just a brief note to inform you of our North Central Family and to acquaint you with our campus Y's. Of course it is quite impossible to give you a complete run-down of these organizations in this note, but we will try to portray the main features.

First of all, the Campus Y's emphasize the C in their titles; Christian. They strive to spread Christian love to all members of the NC Family regardless of race, creed, or denomination. The A could readily represent Amusement! The Y's initiate the new year with a formal banquet and dance. Later they offer sports parties, froliccing mid-winter holiday week-end, school picnics, and many other adventures.

Another highlight of the Y's is that of offering experience in social work by joining the gang that helps out in slum areas, underprivileged school in Aurora, and Geneva's school for girls.

So come on and join the crowd. Hope to see your name on the Y membership list!

The Upper Room where one may be alone in prayer.

Every year the Y-drives call for a lot of fast competition between the dorms. This year they really kept Phil Burke and Kitty Agne hopping.

Theatre Guild Takes over Smith Hall

Theatre Guild amplified its already inclusive program under the direction of Professor Donald Shanower during the 1957-58 season presenting two children's plays, its regular December production, two religious plays, a student directed bill, a musical production, and the Fine Arts Festival play.

Smith Hall, with its new curtains and reserved seating, became the setting for major productions.

Theatre Guild was largely responsible for the presentation of the Homecoming play, Blithe Spirit; but the first actual production was the children's play, Hansel and Gretel, directed by Judy Clasen, in mid-November — one of the group's most successful endeavors.

In December, the production of Arthur Miller's The Crucible met with student and faculty acclaim.

February saw the bill of Irish One-Acts directed by Jim and Jean Koller.

In March, Theatre Guild presented its first musical production, Sing Out, Sweet Land a musical pageant of America.

Another children's play, Flibbertygibbit, directed by Phil Hendren, received April presentation at Ellsworth School.

During the year, Theatre Guild did two religious plays for off-campus production. Where Love Is, an adaptation of a story by Leo Tolstoi, directed by Clyde Cross, toured western Illinois and Minnesota during Easter vacation.

The Theatre Guild production which climaxed the year was Moliere's Imaginary Invalid, a part of the Fine Arts Festival weekend.

Our Musical World at North Central

Barbara Pfeiffer Memorial Hall . . . what does this mean to North Central? What does North Central mean to that? The Music School of North Central College is housed in this hall and that means a lot! However, instead of relaying statistics to you concerning the number in organizations and so forth (you can find that in the college catalog!), we want to give you a very brief run-down on NC's music department as a whole. With the arrival of two new staff members, we saw a more developed marching and concert band and choirs that surpass many of the larger university's chorale groups.

The concert choir, composed of selective voices, conducted a highly successful tour this year and the melodious effect it has given to the campus has been one of great inspiration. The Festival Chorus and Chapel Choir have likewise proven their abilities as they performed in various functions throughout the school year.

North Central College Chapel Choir

Below is a typical Wednesday Chapel scene . . . The chapel choir under the direction of Mr. Allen, is responsible for the beautiful music which we hear each Wednesday morning in our religious worship service.

The band and orchestra, although quite small in quantity in comparison to the number of students on campus, have shown their listeners promises of becoming even better and bigger as the months roll by.

Individual soloists, ensembles such as the HARMONETTES, and various other musical groups are all a part of the School of Music, a part of the Barbara Pfeiffer Memorial Hall, and a greater part of North Central College.

The Concert Choir

First row: Heilman, Ehrhardt, R. Wiebel, Binkert, Feldt, Claus, Veitch, Bredemeier, M. Mitchell, Field, Parks, Crabtree.

Second row: Mielke, Knight, J. Mitchell, Harr, C. Wiebel, Unger, Kuck, Christi, O'Neal, Lange, Benninga.

Third row: Lelivelt, Miller, Ramaker, Driggett, Neilsen, Juda, Ecker, Erdman, Dutenhaver, Erdman, Vance.

Concert Choir Tour

L. Upper: Soloists Jim Erdman, Marilyn Mitchell, Jim Ramaker and Joyce Knight go over music with Mr. Allen before the tour.

L. Lower: Concert Choir officers are Joyce Lange, Carl Nielson, and Barbara Harr.

Middle: The director of the Concert Choir is Mr. Paul W. Allen, a new member of our music faculty this year.

Inside: Betty O'Neal was the accompanist for the tour.

The Band giving a student recital in Pfeiffer Hall under the direction of Mr. Kuiper. This is the same band we see on the football field and at basketball games.

Festival Chorus

Under the direction of Mr. Allen, the Festival Chorus put on a beautiful Christmas program. The soloists at this program were Marilyn Mitchell, James Erdman, Barbara Harr, Joyce Knight, James Ramaker, Carol Sue Schreiner. The Candlelight procession, the Hallelujah Chorus, the Fantasia on Christmas Carols, and the Christmas Oratorio were all included in the program.

Have you guessed who Santa was by now? If not . . . ask at the Business Office!

This is a switch . . . George St. Angelo is having questions thrown to him . . . not like the ones he throws to us on Wednesday Chapels!

Faces we'll remember . . . The Seniors . . . Class of 1958

"This is the last time" echoed the members of the class of 1958 as they moved through the activities of this year. They were experiencing their last homecoming, Big — 'li Sis and Bro Banquets, athletic events, Student Conference, College Day, and their last exams!

The class of '58 had a record they could be proud of. Their big attractions during their Junior year, George Shearing's quintet, Brigadoon, and the prom, enjoyed by all.

Although the membership of the class had decreased they participated with the sophs in the "pond clean-up", and sponsored a Halloween masquerade party. Their Senior Skip Day and other Senior doings quickly came and passed. Graduation loomed ahead, approaching all too quickly.

Finally it came and now to the Seniors, the class of '58, the class that's "really great", with their little red berets are leaving NC. We wish them the best of luck and a welcome to come back to these halls, as the alumni of the class of '58.

SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS

Honor Society

Seated: Jan Faulhaber, Carol Esterly, Clare Lederman, Lynn Stettbacher, Grace Edmonson.

Standing: Jack Marshal, Mary Ann Uebele, Dan Drigget, Mary Washburn Smith, Paul Sutton, Carol Falk, Martin Lang, Meris Bartel, Dr. Eigenbrodt.

Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities . . .

Every year, fifteen to twenty seniors from North Central are chosen to be in the Who's Who publication. They are chosen according to scholastic standing, leadership and participation in school activities. They are chosen by a combination administrative and faculty committee. Each of the seniors receives a certificate, his name in the volume and the volume offered to him.

The following are the seniors who have been selected to receive this honor for the year 1958 to represent North Central College.

JAHN & OLLIER BUILDING

JAHN & OLLIER ENGRAVING CO.

“Jahn & Ollier Again”

A familiar and reassuring slogan

FAMILIAR...because it has appeared in thousands of the country's finest yearbooks for the past half century.

REASSURING...because those years of specialized experience bring complete service, outstanding quality and dependable delivery to the yearbook staffs, with whom we work.
